Griffioen Consulting exceeded my expectations. Great results, great to work with, very cost-effective, and immediate success after completion.

I have tried other business and marketing consulting firms previously with limited success. Jan Griffioen and David Kamm immediately understood my business, its challenges, and how to move it forward. The results proved it.

Hiring Griffioen Consulting provided me with top-level business expertise at a fraction of the cost of hiring someone full-time at their level. The efficiency and depth of their work exceeded what could be obtained by hiring any single person; these guys have 2 engineering degrees, 2 MBA's, and a Ph.D.

Every company will benefit from Jan and David, and any new or start-up company looking for business advice and marketing help will soar with these guys on their team. I learned that firsthand.
